☐ 4/5 Vote Required

Resolution Of The Board Of Supervisors Of The County Of Sonoma, State Of California, Approving The Sonoma County Recovery Operations Plan and Disaster Gap Analysis.

Whereas, in 2022 the Department of Emergency Management was awarded a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) through the California Department of Housing and Community Development in the amount of $374,000 to complete a Disaster Gap Analysis and Recovery Operations Plan; and

Whereas, the purpose of the Disaster Gap Analysis addresses the status of the County's current response and recovery capabilities. The gaps outlined were identified through various data collection methods, including a thorough documentation review, survey analysis, and stakeholder engagement; and

Whereas, the Sonoma County Operational Area Recovery Operations Plan (ROP) provides the County, other local governments within the county, and non-governmental partners with a comprehensive plan to guide recovery efforts following an emergency or major disaster. Its purpose is to facilitate coordination between agencies, jurisdictions, and recovery partners within the Operational Area and externally to ensure the needs of the whole community are being met during short, intermediate, and long-term recovery efforts; and

Whereas, the Department of Emergency Management has completed both the Disaster Gap Analysis and Recovery Operations Plan.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors approve the Sonoma County Disaster Gap Analysis and Sonoma County Recovery Operations Plan.

Approved by the Board this 16th day of December, 2025.
