RECITALS

WHEREAS, County and Contractor entered into that certain Agreement, dated July 1, 2023, for the Parent Mentor Program; and

WHEREAS, County and Contractor desire to amend the Agreement to provide additional funding for increased parent mentor services and the reinstatement of parent orientation services;

NOW, THEREFORE, the parties hereto are desirous of modifying the Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein and hereto agree as follows:

SPECIFIC PROVISIONS

2. Payment.

For all services and incidental costs required hereunder, Contractor shall be paid on a cost reimbursement basis in accordance with the budget set forth in "Exhibit B: Fiscal Provisions/Budget" (hereinafter "Exhibit B"), attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference. Contractor shall be paid an amount not to exceed One Million, Three Hundred Thirty-Five Thousand, Three Hundred Twelve Dollars ($1,335,312.00), without the prior written approval of County. Expenses not expressly authorized by the Agreement shall not be reimbursed. Unless otherwise noted in this agreement, payments shall be made within the normal course of county business after presentation of an invoice in a form approved by the County for services performed. Payments shall be made only upon the satisfactory completion of the services as determined by the County.

3. Term of Agreement.

The term of this Agreement shall be from 07/01/2023 to 06/30/2026 unless terminated earlier in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 below.

9.10. Nondiscrimination. Without limiting any other provision hereunder, Contractor shall comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, rules, and regulations in regard to nondiscrimination in employment practices and in delivery of services because of race, color, ancestry, national origin (including limited English proficiency), religious creed, belief or grooming, sex (including sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, transgender status, pregnancy, childbirth, medical conditions related to pregnancy, childbirth or breast feeding, sex stereotyping), marital status, age, medical condition, physical or mental disability, genetic information, military or veteran status, or any other legally protected category or prohibited basis, including without limitation, the County's Non-Discrimination Policy. All nondiscrimination rules or regulations required by law to be included in this Agreement are incorporated herein by this reference.

9.10.1. Contractor understands and agrees that administrative methods and/or procedures which have the effect of subjecting individuals to discrimination or otherwise defeating the objectives of the applicable and aforementioned laws will be prohibited.

9.10.2. Contractor shall provide County with a copy of their Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action policies upon request and shall sign and submit to County an Assurance of Compliance, attached hereto as "Exhibit D: Assurance of Compliance" (hereinafter "Exhibit D"), and incorporated by this reference, in order to certify that contractor is in compliance with the State and Federal laws related to equal employment opportunity and delivery of services.

9.10.3. Contractor and subcontractors shall give written notice of their obligations under this clause to labor organizations with which they have a collective bargaining or other agreement.

9.10.4. Any and all subcontracts to perform work under this Agreement shall include the nondiscrimination and compliance provisions of this article and subcontractors shall agree to, sign and submit to Contractor a copy of the Assurance of Compliance, Exhibit D. Contractor shall maintain copies of these Assurances and submit copies to County upon County's request.

Exhibit A: Scope of Work
Effective 7/1/2024

I. Parent Orientation Program

A. Program Design

The Parent Orientation Program is intended to benefit referred parents/guardians by increasing their knowledge of the Child Welfare and Dependency Court Systems and encouraging them to engage in child welfare services offered toward a goal of family reunification. Parent Orientation will be open to both parents and guardians that enter Family Reunification services. As such the Contractor will provide a Parent Orientation Program curriculum that includes but is not necessarily limited to:

1. Overview of the Child Welfare/Foster Care System including Emergency Response and Family Maintenance efforts made prior to Juvenile Court intervention and the system processes/practices thereafter. This should also include common terminology that is specific to child welfare services, roles of various players in the Child Welfare/Foster Care System, as well as:
 - a. What to expect during initial Jurisdiction/Disposition Investigation.
 - b. What to expect during the Family Reunification or Court Family Maintenance case.
 - c. What happens if Family Reunification cannot occur.
2. Overview of the Juvenile Dependency Court System including Protective Warrant and Petition Filing processes and the names, frequency, and purposes of hearings thereafter. This should also include roles of various players in the Court system and appropriate presentation at Court.
3. How to handle conflict/disagreement/dissatisfaction with Social Worker or other FY&C staff.
4. Role of and relationship with foster caregivers.
5. Explanation of Team Decision Making (TDM) and T.E.A.M., and Family Team Meetings.
6. Case-planning and services available/potentially offered – how need for services is assessed.
7. Visits with children – how arranged, what to expect, etc.
8. Emotional Regulation (in first session) – techniques for calming oneself.
9. Inclusion of various players in the systems as guest speakers during orientation sessions, including but not limited to: FY&C Social Workers; Foster Parents; Attorneys; Service Providers; Former Foster Youth; Parent/Parent Mentors.

B. Service Provision

Service Goal: Contractor shall provide parent orientation services.

Train and advise all Parent Mentors of the provisions regarding confidentiality of all proceedings and personal identifying information as referenced in Sections 9.12.2. – 9.12.4 of this Agreement. Contractor will further have written acknowledge of the advisement by all Parent Mentor participating in any dependency proceedings.

D. Communication, Reporting, and Evaluation Responsibilities

Contractor will:

1. Communicate with the FY&C Social Worker as follows:
 - a. Contractor will submit, to each assigned FY&C social worker a final report (at completion of sessions) detailing client's participation and engagement in the sessions.
 - b. Contractor may also communicate with social worker via phone or email if a client is displaying difficulty or resistance to the process/program to collaborate on how to address the resistance and so the social worker may address it with the client.
2. Maintain accurate client files and records to satisfy County reporting requirements. The provider shall maintain records, collect data, and provide reports as requested by the County. Reports may include, but not be limited to, the following:
 - a. If utilizing Apricot is mutually agreed upon, all reporting data will be entered into the HSD web-based data system per the specifications mutually agreed upon during the database development process.
 - b. Reporting data, including class attendance, will be entered in a timely fashion, generally within five (5) business days of the activity taking place, by the Contractor and reviewed regularly by FY&C Social Work and Administrative staff.

- c. Quarterly reports will be run by FY&C staff on the 20th of the month following the last month of the quarter. If the 20th falls on a weekend or holiday, the report will be run the following workday.

July through September	October 20
October through December	January 20
January through March	April 20
April through June	July 20

- d. Contractor will work with FY&C to jointly develop an evaluation plan which may include the following components: logic model; service and targets form; analysis of outputs; indication of desired client outcomes; and related tools for measuring progress toward outcomes.

II. Parent Mentor Program

A. Program Design

The Parent Mentor program is a valued support for families with child welfare cases. Input from Parent Mentors, as adults with lived experience with child welfare services is also invaluable as part of child welfare system-level planning efforts.

Parent Mentors are parents (mothers and fathers) who have first-hand experience with the Child Welfare and Juvenile Dependency Court systems. They have successfully reunified with their child(ren). In addition, they will have continued to maintain stability in their own lives and will be clean and sober. They will possess an understanding of how the Child Welfare system works, an appreciation of what it takes to be successful, and personal qualities that lend themselves to collaboration on various levels. The preferred Parent Mentor will possess a positive attitude, sincerity, and a willingness to provide support and help to others.

Ideally, Parent Mentors will not have been involved in the Child Welfare system for the preceding twenty-four (24) months. However, a potential mentor may be considered for hire one year post successful reunification with recommendation from their assigned social worker and FYC Section Manager approval.

The program design shall also include the option of Parent Mentor Trainees. Trainees are parents that successfully completed Family Reunification at least one year prior to becoming employed as a Trainee. Trainees will work alongside Mentors with families and receive all appropriate trainings for 6 to 12 months. Trainees will be eligible for hire upon meeting the minimum requirements to be a Mentor.

The Parent Mentor program will also share the philosophy, values and goals of the Quality Parenting Initiative (QPI) program. Parent Mentors and program leadership will participate in QPI planning efforts and reinforce the values of QPI within the Parent Mentor program.

B. Service Provision

Service Goal:	Contractor shall provide parent mentoring services.
Annual goal:	An estimated seventy to ninety (70-90) families per year
Average caseload per FTE:	Fifteen to twenty (15-20) active families per month
Duration of services:	Average of nine to eighteen (9-18) months
Direct service staff:	4.0 full time Parent Mentors/Trainees

C. Contractor Responsibilities

1. Recruit, hire, train, and supervise four (4) Parent Mentors and/or Parent Mentor Trainee.
2. Maintain a structure of training and recruitment opportunities for potential parent mentors. Submit a written recruitment and training plan annually that will be reviewed by the County.
3. With sufficient advanced notice, ensure presence of at least one (1) Parent Mentor at each Juvenile Dependency Court Detention Hearing.
4. When possible, ensure that at least one (1) Parent Mentor is Spanish-speaking and, preferably, bi-cultural and that the group of Parent Mentors are reflective of the background of involved clients. When possible, ensure that at least (1) Parent Mentor is male.
5. Review cases regularly to ensure appropriate active caseload, appropriate boundaries are maintained with parents and balance is maintained between support and advocacy for parents and partnership/support for social worker and department needs.
6. Send written materials/notifications about existing support groups regularly to FYC staff.
7. Maintain a structure/curriculum for support group meetings. Provide support groups at different times of day, including evenings.
8. Provide, via assigned Parent Mentors, initial and on-going support to parents in FY&C's Family Reunification program.
9. Ensure Parent Mentor participation in Court hearings as well as in TDM, TEAM meetings and Caregiver/Birthparent Introductions as arranged and facilitated by FY&C.
10. Provide resources and guidance to help Parent Mentors strengthen the family functioning and overall child well-being of the parents they mentor.
11. Collaborate with FY&C for the maintenance, monitoring, and evaluation of the Parent Mentor program.
12. Provide reflective, dynamic supervision sessions for Parent Mentors on a regular basis. The supervision will focus on maintaining appropriate boundaries and their role as a Parent Mentor and will be provided by an experienced trauma-informed mental health professional.

13. Provide short term, solution focused support to families that previously participated in Parent Mentor services and whose child welfare cases have since closed, but the parent has requested specific help in order to not risk re-entry into child welfare services.
14. Ensure that Parent Mentors are able to participate in child welfare services planning meetings as invited and available to share their perspectives and expertise.
15. Maintain a structure to train prospective Parent Mentors by providing instruction, shadowing and mentoring within a Parent Mentor position.

D. Parent Mentor Job Duties

1. Arrive at the Juvenile Dependency Courtroom prior to each Detention Hearing and offer assistance to attending parents.
2. Encourage and support parents to participate and complete components of their Family Reunification Case Plan.
3. Coach parents to be effective self-advocates on behalf of their child welfare case and completion of case plan goals.
4. Maintain a professional, supportive relationship with parents that demonstrates effective and professional boundaries consistent with the position. Offer parents a consistent level of service to the degree possible.
5. Develop a viable trusting relationship with the parents assigned.
6. Maintain confidentiality as well as work with assigned parents on maintaining an open and honest relationship with their Family, Youth, & Children's (FY&C) Services Social Workers.
7. As a Mandated Reporter, report incidence of suspected abuse and neglect that are observed directly. If a Parent Mentor hears (but does not observe) incidence of abuse or neglect, Parent Mentors will address any concerns with their supervisor who is a Mandated Reporter.
8. With prior supervisor approval and as available, provide support to clients during non-traditional work hours.
9. Model social skills in the areas of relationship building, behavior, conflict resolution, appropriate attire, demeanor, attitude, etc.
10. Provide emotional support and encouragement to parents before and after supervised visits.
11. Facilitate support groups for families that are/have participated in the parent mentor program.
12. If available, share expertise as part of system planning efforts related to child abuse prevention, partnership between parents and caregivers, etc.
13. Coach assigned parents on how to behave appropriately in court, meetings, case plan component groups/sessions, etc.

14. Coach/train assigned parents in time management, calendar maintenance, transportation use, organization of Court and FY&C documents, making telephone calls, etc.
15. Support parents by helping them to complete case plan requirements including doing tasks with the parent but not for the parent.
16. Support and encourage assigned parents in connection/reconnection with family, community, faith community, appropriate friends, and other potential natural supports.
17. Accompany assigned parents to court hearings (if requested), and Team-Decision Making (TDM) and/or Together to Engage, Act and Motivate (TEAM) meetings facilitated by FY&C.
18. Testify when called upon in court as to the parent's frequency and engagement in parent mentor services as defined by numbers of hours.
19. Share information about available benefits, services, etc. that are not necessarily associated with the child welfare case but will benefit the parent and her/his child(ren). Broach and discuss difficult issues with parents.
20. Support parents to develop appropriate relationships with resource parents and caregivers.
21. Parent Mentors will not be required to supervise visits between parents and children.

E. Communication, Reporting, and Evaluation Responsibilities

1. Contractor will receive Parent Mentor referrals via Apricot, the County's web-based database system.
2. Contractor will enter initial contact notes into Apricot ideally within 10 days and within thirty (30) working days of the referral date at most.
3. Contractor will track hours of contact for each client to measure client engagement. Every thirty (30) days the program manager will evaluate participants to determine who has reached the 3-, 6-, or 9-month interval and enters the data into Apricot for all participants served. Data is entered by the 5th of the following month.
4. All reporting data will be entered into Apricot per the specifications mutually agreed upon and reflected in the workflow protocol.
5. Quarterly reports will be run by FY&C staff using Apricot on the 20th of the month following the last month of the quarter. If the 20th falls on a weekend or holiday, the report will be run the following workday.

July through September	October 20
October through December	January 20
January through March	April 20
April through June	July 20

6. Contractor will work with FY&C to jointly develop an evaluation plan which may include the following components: logic model; service and targets form;

analysis of outputs; indication of desired client outcomes; and related tools for measuring progress toward outcomes

7. Program Outcomes:

- a. 35% of referred families will engage in services.
 - i. Of those that engage in at least three (3) months of service, 50% of them will report an increase in level of motivation and hopefulness in achieving their child welfare case plan goals sense of commitment/motivation to complete their child welfare case plan goals.
 - ii. Of those that engage in at least nine (9) months of service, 65% of them will report an increase in level of motivation and hopefulness in achieving their child welfare case plan goals sense of commitment/motivation to complete their child welfare case plan goals.

III. Results Based Accountability (RBA) Performance Measures (for both programs)

- A. Contractor shall ensure that at least one (1) management or supervisory staff member attends Anti-Racist Results Based Accountability (AR-RBA) Training, led by Sonoma County Human Services Department Upstream Team.
- B. Contractor shall work with County to collect client level data on race/ethnicity for all program participants.
- C. At the request of the County, contractor shall meet with County designated staff to develop a set of AR-RBA performance measures and an overall plan for AR-RBA implementation specifically related to the contract.
- D. At the request of the County, Contractor shall participate in AR-RBA Turn the Curve meetings twice annually to review and discuss performance measure outcomes.
- E. At the request of the County, Contractor shall provide data on outcomes in each performance measure area. Data shall be provided quarterly on dates established by the County.

IV. County Responsibilities (for both programs)

- A. County shall ensure that Contractor receives notifications of disposition hearings no later than one calendar day prior to the hearing.
- B. County shall communicate and/or collaborate with Contractor regarding referred families only when necessary to support the client's attainment of their CPS case plan goals.
- C. County shall convene and participate in program problem resolution, technical assistance and communication.
- D. County shall ensure that Contractor receives annual training on court processes and parameters for testifying.
- E. County shall initiate contact with Parent Mentors if updates about support to particular parents is necessary. County social workers shall respect boundaries around not sharing details of support provided if not directly related to the case or safety of children.

- F. County shall provide training on mandated reporting, court processes, etc. at the request of the Contractor.
- G. County social workers shall recruit and engage parents that are successfully closing their child welfare case in the opportunity of training to be a parent mentor, as provided by the contractor. County staff shall focus recruitment for male Mentors as well as bilingual/bicultural Spanish speaking mentors.
- H. County shall maintain a process for review and approving exceptions to policies for who is eligible to be a Parent Mentor on a case-by-case basis.
- I. County shall work with Contractor to develop and implement program evaluation as resources allow.
- J. County will provide all software licenses, technical support and ongoing assistance for the implementation of Apricot, the web-based database system.

Exhibit B: Fiscal Provisions/Budget
Effective 7/1/2024

1. Fiscal Responsibilities

In consideration of the obligations to be performed by Contractor herein, Contractor shall be reimbursed for its actual costs, in accordance with the agreed upon budget included herein by reference. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the total amount to be paid to Contractor under the terms of this Agreement shall in no case exceed the amount stated in Article 2 of this agreement.

1.1. Claiming and Documentation. Contractor shall receive reimbursement for actual costs by submitting an invoice by the tenth working day of each month. All costs reported by Contractor shall be supported by appropriate accounting documentation. The documentation shall establish that County is charged a fair and equitable portion of any indirect or shared costs attributable to services performed under this Agreement. Invoices shall be submitted to:

County of Sonoma Human Services Department
Family, Youth & Children's Services Division
Attn: Regina de Melo (rdemelo@schsd.org)
1202 Apollo Way
Santa Rosa, CA 95407

1.2. Allowable Costs. No amount or rate negotiated and included in the Contractor's program budget summary or budget backup shall be considered to be an allowable cost in and of itself; such amounts or rates are subject to final approval upon presentation of documentation establishing that actual costs were incurred and are allowable in accordance with Code of Federal Regulations Title 2 CFR Sections 200.420-475.

1.3. No Supplantation. Contractor must not claim reimbursement under this Agreement for expenditures reimbursed or financed by any other federal, state or local government source, such as Medi-Cal or private insurance. No supplantation of program financing by Contractor is contemplated or allowed.

1.4. Financial Records. Contractor understands and accepts its obligation to establish and maintain financial records of all program expenditures.

1.5. Procurement. No procurement is authorized which is not specifically identified and approved herein. Procurement of all services, supplies, and equipment by purchase, lease or rental shall be performed in conformance with Code of Federal Regulations 2 CFR 200.318-326, General Procurement Standards. For purposes of this Agreement, procurement for goods, including equipment, shall mean purchase, lease or rental of any item with a single value exceeding $7,000 or services with a single value exceeding $5,000, per County of Sonoma procurement thresholds.

1.6. Funding Contingency. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Agreement to the contrary, Contractor acknowledges that any payments to be made to it as provided herein shall be expressly contingent upon the receipt of sufficient funds by County. This contingency is for the express benefit of County and may be waived only by giving express written and executed notice to Contractor.

1.7. Modification of Funding. County reserves the right to modify levels of funding for programs and renegotiate Agreement budgets, if needed, due to increases or decreases in funding from the state. County also reserves the right to request changes in program design in order to accommodate changes made by the state. The County Human Services Director has authority to request and approve program design changes.

2. Budget Adjustments.

2.1. Request. Request for transfer of funds between line items shall be submitted on a "Budget Modification Form" (Sub-schedule M01) as provided by the County. The Contractor must provide justification and supporting documentation for the requested revision.

2.2. Approval. The County Human Services Director is authorized to approve and execute a "Budget Modification Form", which details the transfer of funds between Budget line items, and to approve such changes without an Amendment to this Agreement so long as they do not result in an increase in County's maximum financial obligation.

2.2.1. Equipment. Requests to purchase or lease equipment in excess of $7,000 and not included in original budget shall require County approval prior to purchase.

3. Financial Management Systems

3.1. Generally-Accepted Accounting Principles. Contractor shall maintain a financial management system which ensures control over the use of funds received by Contractor in accordance with generally-accepted accounting principles. Contractor must comply with the provisions for cost allocations contained in Federal Office of Management and Budget 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart E. The inability of Contractor to demonstrate compliance will cause a corresponding reduction in reimbursement.

3.2. Separate Account. All funds under this Agreement are not required to be maintained in a separate account, but funds on deposit provided through this Agreement shall be accounted for separately in accordance with Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards [2 CFR Part 200].

3.3. Program Income. Program Income is revenue generated by the Contractor from contract-supported activities. If activities of program participants or of staff funded under this Agreement result in any income to Contractor, that income shall be reported to County for directions as to disposition in accordance with instructions received by County from the State of California. In the event Contractor receives any compensatory credits and refunds, such as those resulting from workers' compensation dividend checks and annual insurance reductions, for which County has previously reimbursed Contractor, then Contractor shall remit such compensatory credits and refunds to County.

3.4. Indirect Cost Rate. Contractor is responsible for having an Agency indirect cost rate plan, when claiming indirect costs under this Agreement.

4. Audits.

4.1. Contractors who receive federal funding which taken together total over $750,000 in a single fiscal year are required to have a single agency audit in accordance with the Federal Office of Management and Budget, 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart F. A copy of this audit must be forwarded to the County by the auditor as soon as it is complete.

4.2. If Contractor expends less than $750,000 in federal awards in the fiscal year it may not charge the cost of an audit to the federal award.

5. Repayment.

5.1. Contractor is responsible for the repayment of all audit exceptions and disallowances taken by County, state, or federal agencies related to activities conducted by Contractor under this Agreement.

5.2. Where unallowable costs have been claimed and reimbursed, they will be refunded to the program that reimbursed the unallowable cost using a cash refund or offset to a subsequent claim.

6. Funding.

6.1. All or part of this Agreement may be paid with Federal funding. Federally awarded funds must be used in accordance with Federal statutes and regulations.

6.2. Federally awarded funds must be used in accordance with Federal statutes and regulations. As a pass-through entity, the County is required to provide certain information regarding Federal award(s) to Contractor as a Sub-recipient. County will provide required information regarding the Federal Award upon receipt of funding documents from the funding source.
