Resolution Of the Board Of Supervisors Of The County Of Sonoma, State Of California, Proclaiming March 25-March 31, 2026, as National Farmworker Awareness Week in Sonoma County

Whereas, National Farmworker Awareness Week (NFAW) is a week of action that calls on communities and individuals to recognize farmworkers and honor the vital contributions they make to our daily lives; and

Whereas, farmworkers are essential workers and valued community members, including many immigrants whose traditions, languages, histories, and lived experiences strengthen and sustain the social and cultural fabric of Sonoma County and communities nationwide; and

Whereas, farmworkers work tirelessly, often facing disproportionate health and safety risks, including exposure to pesticides, extreme heat, and economic insecurity; and

Whereas, through their resilience, dedication, and skill, farmworkers have maintained a safe and reliable food supply for Sonoma County and nation; and

Whereas, NFAW offers an opportunity for people of all generations to learn about, appreciate, and express gratitude for the hard work and sacrifices of farmworkers; and

Be It Further Resolved the County of Sonoma Board of Supervisors proclaim March 25-March 31, 2026, as National Farmworker Awareness Week in Sonoma County.
