Resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Sonoma, State of California, Ratifying Local Health Emergency due to the Glass Incident

Whereas, on September 29, 2020, the Health Officer for the County of Sonoma issued a Proclamation of a Local Health Emergency for the County of Sonoma, State of California, due to hazardous conditions related to the Glass Incident; and

Whereas, pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 101080, where the County Health Officer proclaims a health emergency, the Board of Supervisors must ratify the proclamation within seven days for it to continue in effect; and

Whereas, the Board of Supervisors does hereby find that the circumstances described in the Health Officer's proclamation justify the declaration of the local emergency set forth in the proclamation; and

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved the Board of Supervisors does hereby ratify the Health Officer's Proclamation of a Local Health Emergency, effective immediately upon the adoption of this resolution.
