Resolution Of The Board Of Supervisors Of The County Of Sonoma, State Of California, Honoring Calli Behler As Sebastopol Rotary's New Teacher Of The Year

Whereas, the Sebastopol Rotary Education Foundation's Teacher of the Year Award recognizes exceptional educators whose dedication, professionalism, and creativity enrich the lives of West County students; and

Whereas, Calli Behler is in her third year of teaching at Apple Blossom School, where she is a collaborative, dedicated team player who supports colleagues with everything from Canva assistance and tech troubleshooting to interview panels and spirited campus events; and

Whereas, Calli demonstrates leadership by co-planning monthly field trips for second graders and serving as Lead Teacher in creating "bus buddies" and enhanced safety protocols to ensure positive, secure off-campus learning experiences; and

Whereas, Calli brings creativity and joy into her classroom through innovative activities—such as Starbucks Day, Super Bowl Reading, and the Silly Goose Mascot—while designing organized lessons that build on student strengths; and

Whereas, Calli communicates thoughtfully and effectively with families, ensuring that each student is supported, encouraged, and challenged to grow academically and personally.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors proudly honors Calli Behler as Sebastopol Rotary's New Teacher of the Year, and expresses its appreciation for her exceptional dedication, leadership, and commitment to student success.
