Resolution of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Sonoma, State of California,

Honoring and Acknowledging the Petaluma Golf and Country Club on

The Occasion of its 100th Anniversary

Whereas, the Petaluma Golf and Country Club was formally organized on May 17, 1922 by 80 members of the Petaluma community; and

Whereas, a nine-hole course was designed by golf architect William Locke and established on its present site through an 80-acre gift of land from George P. McNear; and

Whereas, the Petaluma Golf and Country Club held its formal opening 100 years ago on Sunday, September 24, 1922, with nearly 350 people in attendance; and

Whereas, the Petaluma Golf and Country Club clubhouse, designed by noted local architect Brainerd Jones, was constructed and opened in 1924; and

Whereas, the Petaluma Golf and Country Club, through numerous ongoing improvements to the club, offers expanded clubhouse facilities, golf instruction and a swim center for its members; and

Whereas, Through its Junior Golf Development Program, the Petaluma Golf and Country Club offers junior golf memberships, competitive junior golf leagues and member volunteers to support local high school golf programs introducing the youth of the community to the benefits and traditions of the game of golf; and

Whereas, the Petaluma Gold and Country Club has served the community for 100 years as an outstanding venue for quality golf, competitive tournaments and special occasions;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors does hereby Honor and Acknowledge the Petaluma Golf and County Club on the occasion of its 100th Anniversary.
