Errata Memo

July 17, 2023

Summary:

Staff is recommending changes to the 2023 BOS Draft Local Coastal Plan to correct the following elements, appendices, and figures. New text is shown in bold and deleted text is underlined.

Elements

Land Use Element

The Land Use Element was updated to reflect technical corrections approved by the Board of Supervisors on April 4, 2023. This included corrections to policy numbering errors, incorrect internal references, consistency errors, and spelling and grammatical errors. The table in Section 2.3 Resources was updated to include agricultural uses and residential development as principally permitted uses. This correction provides clarification to what is principally permitted in Resources and Rural Development land use designations.

July 2023 BOS Draft LCP Text: Land Use Element 2.3 Resources

Examples of uses allowed in the Resources and Rural Development land use designation may include land management for the purposes of resource conservation as described in the Coastal Zoning Code for Resources and Rural Development, including passive recreation. Passive recreation is defined as recreational use or activities that require no special or formal facilities or are natural areas and include, but are not limited to, bicycle riding, walking, hiking, bird watching, etc. Lands designated as Resources and Rural Development are intended primarily for a variety of land management and coastal-dependent recreation activities, but may also be used for limited agricultural uses and very low-density residential development not in conflict with the primary resource use of the site as a non-principally permitted use. (PC REVISED)
