To whom it may concern:

The signature below affirms that the subject property will be used for year-round and extended seasonal farmworker housing and that the structure will solely be used to house persons employed by the property owner for agricultural purposes.

The referenced site is a good quality, well maintained producing apple orchard with approximately 9 acres of the site utilized for the orchard.

Dutton Ranch
