Resolution Of The Board Of Supervisors Of The County Of Sonoma, State Of California,

Whereas, the 4-H Youth Development Program is the youth education program of the University of California Cooperative Extension and the U.S. Department of Agriculture; and

Whereas, the mission of 4-H is to engage youth in reaching their fullest potential through learning by doing to promote healthy living, agriculture, science, technology, engineering, civic engagement, and leadership; and

Whereas, Sonoma 4-H reaches 2,000 youth supported by 300 adult volunteers, with enrollment growing by 141% overall and by 290% with Latino youth last year; and

Whereas, 4-H is represented by the 4-H All Star Youth Ambassadors, Cassidy Carroll, Jane Crosby, Megan Donaldson, Corrianna Edwards, Bailey Glashan, Caroline Hampton, Meghan Hill, and Kaynen Schuldt; and

Whereas, 4-H merits recognition for its distinguished record of helping young people become healthy and thriving citizens who make a positive difference in their communities.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Board of Supervisors hereby authorize the Chairperson to recognize National 4-H Week, October 6th through the 12th, 2019 in the County of Sonoma, California.
