Resolution Of The Board Of Supervisors Of The County Of Sonoma, State Of California, Acknowledging and Commending Northern California Public Media on the Occasion of its Thirty-Fifth Anniversary of Non-Profit Community Service

Whereas, Northern California Public Media is a non-profit organization which operates three community broadcast stations providing educational, informational and cultural telecommunication services in partnership with the community and is the only locally owned and operated television broadcast station in Sonoma County, paying special attention to Sonoma County needs; and

Whereas, Northern California Public Media, through its media channels of KRCB TV, KPJK TV and KRCB FM, provides a rich array of public media services to Sonoma County and the entire Bay Area from offices in Rohnert Park and extends the richness of public media by providing children's programming every day, with Spanish language options, as well as helping many adults accomplish their educational goals through adult literacy programs, high school level programs, and college level programs; and

Whereas, For many viewers and listeners in Sonoma County, KRCB TV and KRCB FM are the only source of public television and public programs, these programs originate in Sonoma County, but are presented in all nine Bay Area counties with many of the programs produced in Sonoma County being distributed nationally on public media stations across the United States.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors acknowledges and commends Northern California Public Media on the occasion of its Thirty-

Resolution #19-
