Title:

Department Head Personal Services Agreement - Public Defender

Recommended Action:

Authorize the Board of Supervisors to execute a Personal Services Agreement with Brian Morris as Public Defender, with the agreement from December 1, 2021 to November 30, 2024 at the "G" step of the position's salary range, and eligibility for other County benefits in accordance with Salary Resolution 95-0926.

Executive Summary:

The salary and fringe benefits provided to County department and agency heads must be considered by the Board of Supervisors at a regularly scheduled Board meeting. Further, an oral summary of the salary and benefits recommended action must be presented at the meeting where the final Board action is taken. (California Government code §54953, 54956)

After a successful statewide recruitment and extensive selection process, the Board of Supervisors has selected Brian Morris as the new Public Defender.

Discussion:

The Public Defender is responsible for the development, administration, and direction of the County's program for legal defense for those needing County provided defense as mandated in California Government Code section 27706. The Office provides counsel in felony and misdemeanor trials, and preliminary hearings in the Superior Courts; counsel to minors in Juvenile Court proceedings; and counsel in mental health related proceedings which may result in incarceration or detention or other deprivation of liberty for those in need. The Public Defender manages a current annual budget of $14.5 million and leads a staff of 54 full-time employees, including.

Upon the announcement of the previous Public Defender's retirement, Human Resources conducted an extensive statewide recruitment. Candidates were invited to interview with a diverse group consisting of subject matter experts, community stakeholders, County department heads, the County Administrator and the Board of Supervisors. At the conclusion of the process, the Board of Supervisors selected Brian Morris as the next Public Defender.

Mr. Morris has more than twenty years of public defense experience and early in his career served as a Deputy Public Defender for Sonoma County. Since 2001, Mr. Morris has been with the Marin County Public
