Recommended Action:

Approve the Reappointment of Sherie Hurd to the Sonoma County Public Law Library Board of Trustees ending on January 4, 2022. (Countywide)

Executive Summary:

The Law Library Board of Trustees is requesting the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors re-appoint members on the Law Library Board of Trustees. Non-judicial members of the Board of Trustees shall be appointed (or reappointed) each year by the Board of Supervisors.

Reappointment: Ms. Sherie Hurd is an active and community-involved Sonoma County resident who has been the vice president of Empire College since 1987. The Law Library Board of Trustees recommends that she continue to serve on that board and request that she is re-appointed.

Discussion:

Sonoma County Public Law Library has a seven member Board of Trustees. The seven-member board consists of five superior court judges who historically have been appointed by the presiding judge and two additional members are appointed by the Board of Supervisors. One of the members appointed by the Board of Supervisors represents the State Bar and the other represents the chair of the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors. (California Bus. & Prof. Code section 6301) Historically, the chair of the board has appointed someone to serve as trustee however it is up to the chair if they wish to fill the seat personally.

Current Law Library Board of Trustees are as follows:

Judge Jim Bertoli, President

Judge Ken Gness, Vice-President
Judge Dana Simonds, Member
Judge Peter Ottenweller, Member
Judge Patrick Broderick, Member
Sherie Hurd, Member & Financial Chair [request to reappoint]
Board of Supervisors Chair or representative trustee [under separate board item request to appoint James J. Barnes]

Supported by Nikolaos Pelekis, Law Library Manager and Secretary to the Board of Trustees
