Title:
Sonoma County Assessment Appeals Board Prehearing Conference Procedures

Recommended Action:
Adopt Prehearing Conference Procedures

Executive Summary:
The Sonoma County Assessment Appeals Board does not currently conduct prehearing conferences. Adoption of prehearing conference procedures is a two-step process. First, per Article XIII, section 16, California Constitution, Rule 350.2(a) Prehearing Conference, The County Board of Supervisors must adopt prehearing conference procedures. Following adoption, the Assessment Appeals Board, as required by Local Rule 10(b), must approve the prehearing conference procedures before implementation. Prehearing conferences allow mediation between the taxpayer and Assessor's office of all issues surrounding the assessment appeal application excluding assessed value. This allows for a more clear and concise hearing at the time that the appeal is formally heard before the Assessment Appeals Board.
