Title:
Road to Early Achievement and Development of Youth Revenue Agreement

Recommended Action:

Authorize the Director of the Human Services Department to execute an agreement with First 5 Sonoma County in the amount of $798,265. The funding will be used to expand the use of the Upstream Investments shared outcomes Apricot database and expand the Road to Early Achievement and Development of Youth Project to include evaluation activities for First 5 funded programs for the period of July 1, 2021, through June 30, 2024.

Executive Summary:

Upstream Investments is committed to implementing a collective impact approach to improving community well-being through evidence-based interventions. A core element of achieving collective impact is bringing sectors together to establish shared outcome measures, and the Apricot database system provides a platform for data sharing across Upstream's partner organizations and County departments. Upstream leverages Apricot to conduct community level evaluation, including for the First 5 Sonoma County funded Road to Early Achievement and Development of Youth (READY) Project. Upstream will expand its evaluation efforts by integrating First 5 funded program data into the Apricot database system. Using the Results Based Accountability framework to identify shared outcomes with First 5 and their funded agencies, it is anticipated that this collaboration will provide a more robust data set for the evaluation of First 5 funded programs.

Discussion:

Established by the Board of Supervisors in 2010, Upstream Investments is founded on a collective impact framework. Upstream staff and partners have provided the backbone support needed for local collective action, development of common community agendas, continuous communication with Upstream partners, and the strengthening of community capacity to engage in mutually reinforcing activities. A core element of achieving collective impact is bringing sectors together to establish shared data measures. In 2014, the Board of Supervisors authorized Upstream to adopt a shared measurement database system, Apricot. The Apricot system provides a platform for data sharing across both Upstream Investment partner organizations and County departments.

By tracking progress through a unified system and approach, Upstream Investments and County partners with access to Apricot have been able to share jointly established metrics to monitor progress and implement continuous improvement. Using Apricot to share data has provided a tool to strengthen service providers' understanding of complex client needs, improve quality and coordination of services, reduce redundancy of efforts, and maximize resources.

For example, Upstream staff manage the First 5 READY project work with partner school districts to collect student outcome data using Apricot. READY staff are able to generate reports from Apricot for use by school districts, service providers and funders to determine appropriate early intervention and support strategies for incoming kindergarten students in Sonoma County. To build on the success of Apricot and provide a road map that supports shared measurement and collective impact integration, on April 2, 2019, the Board of Supervisors approved the adoption of Results-Based Accountability (RBA) as the approach to implement contracting principles for safety net programs. RBA is a disciplined way of thinking and acting that offers a process and tools for agency transparency and accountability through contracts.

In an effort to build County and safety net service provider transparency and accountability, Upstream Investments proposes to work with First 5 Sonoma County to expand the evaluation work of READY and pilot the complete integration of the RBA process and tools into First 5's policies and procedures. The piloting of the RBA process and tools with First 5 will require: (1) the transition of First 5 data system from Persimmony to Apricot, and; (2) provision of training and technical assistance from Upstream Investments staff to support First 5 funded partners in identifying population level conditions of well-being and programmatic performance measures as defined by RBA Contracting Principles.

Once First 5-specific programs and contracted partners are identified to begin using Apricot, licenses will be extended to these new users. If the total number of current and anticipated users exceeds 22 (number of users purchased with the 2021-2024 contract), additional licenses may be purchased under this contract, for a total amount not to exceed $25,000.
